A FINE DAY'S SPORT AT THE OVAL CLUB

THE NEW HOUSE FILLED WITH VISITORS—GOOD GAMES OF TENNIS.

Clear skies and gentle breezes yesterday favored the efforts of the members of the Oval Club to entertain their friends at the new clubhouse on Morris Heights. A party made up of Mr. and Mrs. Schermerhorn, Miss Waite, Miss Brown, of Providence; Miss Jeanne Hill, Mrs. Janvier Le Due, Mrs. E. L. Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. John S. White and two students from Yale College, took the Oval, the club's new coach, at the Central Park Plaza early in the afternoon, and arrived at the Berkeley Oval about 2 o'clock. About 300 people well known in social circles filled the broad verandas and the house. A band played in the ombra at the right of the main entrance.

The tennis courts on the terrace were occupied by Miss Heide Moore and Miss Lulu Mary, who played a preliminary bout for the singles championship. Miss Moore was the victor, the score being 6-1, 6-4. Miss Sherman acted as scorer and M. Coe as referee. In the doubles, on the Oval earth courts, Miss Sarah Shepard Johnson and Miss Annie Burdette defeated the Misses Ewing by the following score: 5-7, 6-2 and 6-1. The breeder was Richard Platt, and the referee Leon Marie.

The club will give a reception on May 20, when the finals in the tennis contest will be played. There will be dancing in the ombra in the evening. Among those on the Reception Committee yesterday were Miss Florence Van Rensselaer, Mrs. B. L. Sherman, Mrs. Leon Marie, Miss Marion Read and Mrs. Janvier Le Due. Others present were T. J. Cahley Rhineland, Mr. and Mrs. S. Van Rensselaer, Cruger, Howard Pell, Amory S. Carhart, Miss Sands, Miss Lawrence, Lawrence Miller, Montgomery Strong, Miss Baron, Newbold Morris, the Misses Clarkson, Miss Barney, George P. Cammann, Mr. and Mrs. H. de B. Parsons, Mrs. Burke Roche, Miss Josie Gray, Miss Elizabeth Jones, the Misses Herring, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Foote, Frank Robinson, Thomas Henson, Miss Daisy Pierson, Miss Martin Coster and Miss de Kay.

AN ENGLISH EVANGELIST ARRIVES HERE.

Edward Arrowsmith, a layman and business man, who has been prominently identified with Young People's Christian Work, arrived here on the Umbria yesterday. Mr. Arrowsmith is at the head of the Special Service Mission, a movement in England which embraces the Young People's Scripture Union and the Seaside Mission services for schoolboys and schoolgirls. This movement, characterized by novel methods, practical wisdom and earnest evangelism, has aroused much enthusiasm. Mr. Arrowsmith is expected to deliver his first address in this country at a Young People's Gospel Meeting this evening at the St. James Methodist Episcopal Church, Madison-ave. and one hundred and twenty-sixth-st.

MR. WERNBERG'S ACTION SUSTAINED.

The proceedings which were taken to remove Jere A. Wernberg from his position as agent of the estate of Harvey Chapman, the actor, who is now confined in a private asylum near Flushing, L. I., have been withdrawn, as have also all the charges made against Mr. Wernberg in that suit of misappropriation of some of the funds to his own use, etc. Marshall P. Stafford, who was employed by the relatives of Mr. Chapman to bring the suit, has written a letter to Mr. Wernberg, in which he complimented him on the way in which he has taken care of the property and of the accounts concerning it, fully exonerates him from the charges which were made against him, and asks him to continue as agent of the estate. Mr. Wernberg declined to do so, however, because his

YAVIER ALUMNI TO HAVE A NEW CHAPEL.

The Xavier Alumni Society, an organization of the students and graduates of Xavier college, is about to erect a handsome chapel in this city for the special use of its members, and two plots of ground, Nos. 57 and 59 West Fifteenth-st., have been purchased from the College of St. Francis Xavier. The Rev. P. A. Halpin, S. J., director of the society, said yesterday that the chapel would be constructed in a modified Gothic style, and cost between $35,000 and $50,000. Father Halpin said that the organization had long felt the need of a place of worship of its own, and that its members were wealthy enough to build and maintain it. There are now on its rolls 450 names, and on May 17 the society will celebrate the twentieth anniversary of its organization by a dinner at the Metropolitan Hotel.

MONEY FOR THE HANCOCK MONUMENT.

A sacred concert in aid of the General Willard Scott Hancock Monument Fund will be given at Palmer's Theatre to-night. General Daniel E. Sickles will preside and make a short address. The Russian naval band will play Russian National airs and other selections, and the Metropolitan orchestra (amateur), of seventy instruments, will also give selections. Others who have volunteered their services are Miss Carlotta Macdonald, Miss Marie Glover, Miss Veronika Jarbeau and Miss Margaret Lemon, soprano; Miss Marie Maurer, contralto; Payne Clarke, tenor; Conrad Behrens, basso; Hans Kronold, violoncello; Isidor Luckstone, accompanist, and Don Aurelio Cernados, pianist. Alexander Salvini, Wilson Barrett and Henry E. Dixey will give recitations.

MR. CALLAHAN DENIES A REPORT.

Edward Callahan's son, the carriage builder, whose warehouse, No. 1,522 Broadway, was destroyed in the fire at the old 71st Regiment armory, extending from Forty-fourth-st. to Forty-fifth-st. in Broadway, on Friday night, denies the story that the fire started in his place. Mr. Callahan's store was one of the row of business places on the ground floor of the armory building, and it was said that a boy, carrying a lighted candle among the varnishes, oil and other inflammable materials in the Callahan rooms, had some how started the blaze. This information was obtained from the police and from persons who professed to have been in the building when the fire began. Mr. Callahan has made an investigation, and has found that the story was altogether wrong.

THE EXCHANGE PUNISHES NON-MEMBERS.

The Produce Exchange adopted some time ago a rule which practically allows the Exchange to punish non-members for failure to live up to contracts; that they have made with members of the Exchange. The first case to come up under this rule was decided yesterday, when the A. P. Brantley Company, of Georgia, was posted. Accompanying the notice was one announcing that any member of the Exchange who had dealings with this company would be suspended pending investigation. The notice was signed by the chairman of the Board of Managers. It grew out of a transaction between the Georgia firm and Hopkins, Dwight & Co., who are members of the Exchange. Hopkins, Dwight & Co. contracted with the A. P. Brantley Company for a number of barrels of cottonseed oil. The brokers afterward made a contract with a firm to deliver the oil to it.
In the mean time the price of cottonseed oil went up and the Georgia firm failed to keep its contract, so the brokers were compelled to fill their order at a loss to themselves. They brought the matter before the Grievance Committee of the Produce Exchange, and from this committee it went to the Board of Managers, before which Mr. Brantley appeared and made his defense. It was not satisfactory to the board and the posting of the firm and the notice to the members of the Exchange followed. The members of the Exchange generally applauded this action, for they often are not in exactly the same plight that Hopkins, Dwight & Co. were placed in by the action of the Georgia firm.

A SINGER'S BODY CREMATED.

The body of Lyllan Pool, soprano of the Vernona Jarbeau Company, and sister of Miss Tenney N.
Pool, of the "Black Crook" company, who died on April 29 in Pittsburgh, was cremated in that city, and the ashes have been brought here. The urn containing the ashes will be taken to St. George's Church, at East Sixteenth-st. and Stevenson Square, and funeral services will be held there on Thursday at 2:30 p. m.
